Serving students and the community through involvement

"While getting my undergraduate degree I knew I wanted a job that made a difference in the community I serve. By being a campus police officer, I combine my love of student affairs and law enforcement to make a difference in the community," Carroll said. "It is important for me to serve professionally and personally because it is something I value, has an impact on the community I am serving, and allows for continued networking, building relationships, and knowing my resources in the community..."

Read More

Four ceremonies for May 2015 commencement

• Summer registration is open now! Be sure to contact your advisor with your summer plans.

• Graduation around the corner? Find all your forms and information here.

March 2 - Summer 2015 registration opens.
In May, UW-Platteville will graduate one of the largest classes ever. To accommodate all of our students, there will be four separate commencement ceremonies. All will take place in the Williams Fieldhouse.

Students are encouraged to RSVP soon to reserve their seat at the ceremony and join DLC faculty and staff for a reception Friday evening.

Read more

Are summer courses for you? Ask your advisor!

As an academic advisor in the Distance Learning Center, one of the most common questions I am asked is, "Should I take classes over the summer?" While there is not a one-size-fits-all answer to that question, I think there are a number of benefits to consider before you start playing Alice Cooper's 1972 hit, "School's Out for Summer."

Read More

March 9 - Last day to register for spring 2015 second 8-week session online courses or drop a second 8-week spring session course and receive 100% refund.

March 15 - Last day to register and pay for print-based classes starting on April 2.

March 16 - Preview week begins for students enrolled in spring 2015 second 8-week session online courses.

March 23 - First day of spring 2015 second 8-week session online courses.

March 24 - Last day to drop a spring 2015 full-semester online course; no refund available.

March 29 - Last day to drop a spring 2015 second 8-week session online course and receive 100% of refundable tuition.
The Pioneer Connection strives to keep students informed of news and events associated with UW-Platteville Online. We are always looking for new ideas, ways to improve, and students to profile, so we encourage you to send your ideas our way. If you have an idea for a story or profile, please contact the editor, Megan Hinderman, at hindermanm@uwplatt.edu.

You received this e-mail because you are a UW-Platteville Distance Education student. Current students must have an active UW-Platteville e-mail address to receive important updates. Copyright © 2014. All Rights Reserved.