UW-Platteville Distance Education launches Twitter, Facebook pages

In an effort to build a stronger community of students and alumni, the UW-Platteville Distance Learning Center is pleased to announce the launch of its new Twitter and Facebook accounts. The two new accounts, along with the DLC LinkedIn page, will provide additional ways for people interested in online opportunities at UW-Platteville to connect and learn.

Distance Learning Center garners $630,410 National Science Foundation Grant

The National Science Foundation (NSF) awarded a grant of $630,410 to the University of Wisconsin-Platteville’s Distance Learning Center. The grant will support the development of new online courses and programs.

- Graduation is May 8 and 9. Share your support for the graduates on Twitter and Facebook with #GoUWP.
- Courses are filling fast - register now!
- We have two alumni in the band Windsor Drive and they are playing on campus on May 1. If you're in the area, come check them out!
UW-Platteville will partner with the National Science Foundation on a five year project.

The five-year project will provide 10 annual scholarships to full-time online students pursuing graduate education in STEM fields.
