Full members of the Graduate Faculty may oversee the processes for assessing theses, seminar papers, graduate projects, and/or oral exams. Full members may teach graduate level courses and advise graduate students. Full members may serve on the Graduate Council.

   Proposed Updated Article IV, Section 1c – (Note: proposed change is the addition of the last sentence)
   c. Provisional membership. Upon recommendation from a graduate program, provisional status may be granted to instructional academic staff or individuals external to the UW-Platteville community who have at least a master’s degree. Such persons are expected to contribute to the university’s graduate programs through specialized instruction, clinical supervision, or contribution of professional expertise and knowledge. Provisional members may serve on thesis, seminar paper, graduate project, or oral examination committees only when the committee also consists of at least one full member or associate member. Provisional membership will be reviewed annually and is intended to be temporary. At the discretion of the Graduate Council, provisional members with prior graduate teaching experience for UW-Platteville may be granted provisional membership for three years.

History –
From the September 30, 2010 Graduate Council meeting minutes –
12. Review of the By-laws relating to Graduate Faculty membership – David Van Buren. David Van Buren asked for three volunteers for a subcommittee to review the criteria for admission to the Graduate Faculty. He went on to reflect on the time and energy that goes into reviewing provisional membership every year. He wondered if maybe that approval could be extended to two or three years. Lisa Riedle, Rob Hasker, Cheryl Banachowski-Fuller, Karen Stinson and Christine Storlie volunteered to serve on the subcommittee.

From the October 21, 2010 Graduate Council meeting minutes –

4. Report - By-laws relating to Graduate Faculty membership subcommittee – Cheryl Banachowski-Fuller. Subcommittee recommendation for change: By-Law, Section 1: Graduate Faculty Composition, C. Provisional Membership: C. Provisional Membership…(last line change) Provisional membership will be reviewed every 3 years with the expectation that the candidate show professional development in a relevant area. Cheryl Banachowski-Fuller reported for the subcommittee. Rob Hasker suggested that the council not vote on the wording change until David Van Buren could be present. Discussion ensued and it was decided to wait until a future meeting for a vote to be taken. Scott Ringgenberg questioned who would determine if the faculty member has met requirements for “professional development in a relevant area”? Discussion ensued and it was suggested that it should be evident in an updated resume what development they had accomplished. Future discussion was held regarding possible changes needed in the graduate faculty approval form. It was suggested that perhaps a check box on the form indicating that the professional development had been evaluated and determined adequate by the department. Or perhaps a box should be included on the form where a short explanation of the development could be listed. Discussion ensued. Patricia Bromley mentioned that this new change could cause a recordkeeping nightmare for the School of Graduate Studies having to check the approval of each faculty member on a course by course basis. Maybe the change would not be a good idea. Discussion ensued and it was decided that the subcommittee will continue and report at the November meeting.

From the November 18, 2010 Graduate Council meeting minutes –

5. Report - By-laws relating to Graduate Faculty membership subcommittee – Dave Van Buren. Proposed amendments to the By-Laws: Article IV Section 1. Graduate Faculty Composition. (Note: proposed change is to the first sentence)

a. Full membership. All tenured faculty and tenure-track faculty with at least three years of experience on the UW-Platteville campus, who have an appropriate terminal degree with the academic rank of assistant professor or above, may be granted graduate faculty status upon recommendation from the graduate program to the Graduate Council. Once granted, full membership is maintained through teaching at the graduate level and/or overseeing graduate student activities or graduate programs. Full members of the Graduate Faculty may oversee the processes for assessing theses, seminar papers, graduate projects, and/or oral exams. Full members may teach graduate level courses and advise graduate students. Full members may serve on the Graduate Council.

(Note: proposed change is the addition of the last sentence)

c. Provisional membership. Upon recommendation from a graduate program, provisional status may be granted to instructional academic staff or individuals external to the UW-Platteville community who have at least a master's degree. Such persons are expected to contribute to the university’s graduate programs through specialized instruction, clinical supervision, or contribution of professional expertise and knowledge. Provisional members may serve on thesis, seminar paper, graduate project, or oral examination committees only when the committee also consists of at least one full member or associate member. Provisional membership will be reviewed annually and is intended to be temporary. At the discretion of the Graduate Council, provisional members with prior graduate teaching experience for UW-Platteville may be granted provisional membership for three years. Subcommittee also recommends revision of the Graduate Faculty Approval Form – copies of the current approval form and the suggested revised approval form are in the Graduate Council workgroup folder. David Van Buren presented proposed changes. Pat Bromley asked if 3 years of experience for full membership could be sufficient even for a part time person. The response was that it would be. A revised graduate faculty approval form was also presented for consideration. A recommendation was made to change “Distance Learning Center” to “Distance Education” on the form. On Article IV, section 1c, it was decided to change the “for” to “with” in “All tenured faculty and tenure-track faculty with at least three years of experience on the for UW-Platteville”. Christine Storlie suggested requiring three years teaching experience, and after discussion the consensus was to amend the statement to “All tenured faculty and tenure-track faculty with at least three years of teaching experience with UW-Platteville”. This change was approved on a motion by Pat Bromley and seconded by Lisa Riedle. The amendments to the bylaws will be voted upon at a later meeting.

The approval of the proposed setting will be based on Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction guidelines and available Counselor Education Program resources. Students in community counseling must propose an agency or college office that will provide appropriate supervision and experience. 4. COUNSELED (Counselor Education) 7170 – course description change – effective immediately –

- This graduate-level course is designed to advance the psychotherapy skills of counselors-in-training. Specifically, intervention techniques will be introduced, observed, and practiced beyond core relationship skills. The course is experiential in nature, although strong components of theories of psychotherapy and research evidence are imbedded within the structure and process of the course. Graduate students in this course will read about, discuss, observe, practice, and provide feedback about the implementation of techniques. We will proceed from written examples and demonstrations to more real-life situations involving simulated counseling sessions. A typical class period will begin with mindfulness practice. A student-led discussion of the assigned reading will be followed by a presentation on the theory associated with the counseling technique. The latter part will involve students practicing various counseling techniques in role-plays and simulated counseling sessions. During mock counseling "sessions", all students will take a turn assuming one of three primary roles: a counselor, a client, or an observer. First, as the counselor, you will practice specified skills and receive feedback from your instructor, peers, and the "client". Next as the "client" you will discuss a current concern or problem, with parameters given by the instructor (Note: these should be minor issues that you are willing to share in a public setting, in front of your peers). Finally, as an observer, you will provide consultation to the counselor as well as feedback about his or her performance.
