The Karrmann Library:
The Hub Where All Disciplines Converge
By Josephine Gurira

The Karrmann Library is:

- At the center of the university
- Where researchers can get help (in person, over the phone, e-mail, or in chat sessions)
- Where researchers discover access to the vast UW System collections and databases
- Where divergent opinions live side by side
- Where “university education” encapsulates the actual “universe”
- Where books on AutoCAD are shelved “near” poetry explication and musical scores
- A place for group study and meetings
- Where facts can be verified from fiction
- Where you can relax with leisure reading or concentrate on scholarly research

Elton S. Karrmann Library
University of Wisconsin-Platteville
One University Plaza
Platteville, WI 53818

Phone 608-342-1668
E-mail or Chat:
http://www.uwplatt.edu/library

Now the Karrmann Library houses the ITS Help Desk and the new Testing Center on the first floor!
Turn to America History & Life with Full Text, the definitive database of literature covering the history and culture of the United States and Canada, from prehistory to the present. With selective indexing for 1,700 journals from 1955 to the present, this database is without question the most important bibliographic reference tool for students and scholars of U.S. and Canadian history.

America: History & Life with Full Text also provides full-text coverage of more than 200 journals and nearly 100 books. Members of the UW-Platteville community have access to this database through the library’s subscription by clicking the title from the list on the “Articles and Databases” web page.

---

The Open Book

Elton S. Karrmann
Library
University of Wisconsin-Platteville
608-342-1668

Kay Young, editor
608-342-1134 — young@uwplatt.edu