2015 UW-Platteville Grant Proposal Writing Fund

Purpose: The purpose of the UW-Platteville Grant Proposal Writing Fund is to promote the writing and submission of federal or national grants. Awards of up to $4,000.00 will be provided. These monies can be used for salary, travel to the sponsoring agency/organization, backfill to support release time, or other grant writing expenses. The grant proposals, written in the format (or forms) required by the sponsoring agency/organization, are to be submitted to the Vice Chancellor through the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs no earlier than July 1, 2015, but prior to May 15, 2016.

Eligibility: Current faculty and full-time academic staff members who are employed by UW-Platteville in 2014/15 are eligible to apply.

Selection Criteria: Priority will be given to writing federal or national grant proposals that would have a university-wide impact. Other proposals will be considered that have a college or department impact.

Process: For assistance in locating grant funding opportunities contact the Office of Research & Sponsored Programs. The 2015 Grant Proposal Writing request is to be submitted to the College Dean no later than Friday, February 27, 2015. The Dean will review the college proposals, rank them according to the selection criteria, and submit them to the Vice Chancellor no later than Friday, March 6, 2015. Funding decisions will be made no later than Monday, March 16, 2015.

Request: The request is to outline the purpose and impact of the grant, identify the federal or national agency/organization, and provide the faculty/staff member’s history of funded grants. The request should include the information listed on page two.
