   Move by David Boyles to move to item 6 on the agenda before item 5; second by Amanda Tucker. Motion carried. Dianne Hanten agreed that a subject area of LATNAMER can be created for course number 2000.

   A drop form will be submitted for History 2000 and it will not count for Humanities. A new General Education form will also be submitted.

7. Dennis Ciesielski – Writing Emphasis – Dennis has a document for review for two writing emphasis courses. Needs UUCC approval – one reading. Was not discussed at meeting.

8. Shane Drefcinski confirmed that triple count general education courses are not allowed.

   Motion by David Boyles to not review any proposal that includes three areas of general education, including those that would count in two areas out of three choices. Decision as to which two areas are to be counted as general education credits will be made at the department level. Second by Amanda Tucker.

   Dianne Hanten is supposed to send “or” general education courses to Joanne Wilson for review. Joanne will contact the departments to make a decision on what two areas are to be counted. Dianne will also send Joanne the “triple” general education courses for review.

9. Need to add a discussion topic about retroactive courses to the January 2014 agenda per Art Ranney.
