Sexual Assault: Section 940.225 of the Wisconsin Statutes creates four degrees of sexual assault. The degrees are based upon the amount of force used by the assailant and the harm done to the victim. First, second and third degree sexual assaults are felonies; fourth degree sexual assault is a misdemeanor.

Degree of Sexual Assault Committed - (PLEASE SELECT ONE)

☐ First degree sexual assault includes:
   Sexual intercourse or sexual contact without consent which causes pregnancy or inflicts great bodily harm, or sexual intercourse or sexual contact without consent accomplished by using or threatening to use a dangerous weapon, or sexual intercourse or sexual contact without consent while aided by one or more persons.

A person can be imprisoned not more than twenty years for committing first degree sexual assault.

☐ Second degree sexual assault includes:
   Sexual intercourse or sexual contact without consent through the use or threat of violence, or sexual intercourse or sexual contact without consent which causes injury, including illness, disease, or impairment of a sexual or reproductive organ, or mental anguish requiring psychiatric care, or sexual intercourse or sexual contact with a person known by the perpetrator to be unconscious or mentally ill or mentally deficient. Sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is under the influence of an intoxicant to a degree which renders that person incapable of giving consent if the defendant has actual knowledge that the person is incapable of giving consent and the defendant has the purpose to have sexual contact or sexual intercourse with the person while the person is incapable of giving consent.

A person can be imprisoned not more than ten years and/or fined not more than $10,000 for committing second degree sexual assault.

☐ Third degree sexual assault includes:
   Having sexual intercourse with a person without that person’s consent.

The penalty for third degree sexual assault is imprisonment for not more than five years and/or a fine of not more than $10,000.

☐ Fourth degree sexual assault includes:
   Having sexual contact with a person without that person’s consent. Sexual contact means any of the following: Intentional touching, by the complainant or defendant, either directly or through clothing by the use of any body part or object, of the complainant’s or defendant’s intimate parts if that intentional touching is either for the purpose of sexually degrading or humiliating the complainant, or sexually arousing or gratifying the defendant.

The penalty for fourth degree sexual assault is imprisonment for not more than nine months in the county jail and/or a fine of not more than $10,000.
