April 1 – Affirmative Action: Myth and Realities
103 Doudna Hall; 6:30-8:30 p.m.
Dr. Rosalyn Broussard and Margaret Karsten will examine the myths and realities surrounding affirmative action and reverse discrimination.
Ethnic Studies Program, 608.342.6060

April 1 – Origins of Sino-American Relations
116 Doudna Hall; 6–7:30 p.m.
Dr. Eugene Tsedahl and Dr. Victor Yu will discuss early Sino-American relations, trade, missionaries, and diplomacy.
Confucius Institute, 608.342.1310

April 1 – Portuguese Demo Class
114 Doudna Hall; 4–4:45 p.m.
Demo class, taught by Denise M. Osborne.
Department of Humanities, Foreign Languages, 608.342.1171

April 1–9 – UW-Platteville Art Faculty Exhibition
Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery, Ulvick Hall
Monday–Friday 9 a.m.—6 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.–2 p.m.
Exhibition of artwork created by the faculty and instructional staff of the art program in the Department of Performing and Visual Arts.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143
Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery, 608.342.2787

April 2 – Stand-Up Comedy in America
116 Doudna Hall; 6:30–8 p.m.
Dr. David Gillotta will discuss ways stand-up comedy can be used to explore important questions about the nature of American identity. Dr. Frank King will discuss how Hip Hop and comedy both make connections to issues of race, class, gender, sexuality, and religion.
College of LSE, 608.342.1151

April 2–5 May – Nutrition for All Ages
High Vibe Fitness, Platteville; 3:45–4:15 p.m.
Open to all community members interested in improving personal or family nutrition, with topics ranging from label reading to meal planning and all things in between.
Department of Health and Human Performance, 608.342.1573

April 3–May 8 – Nutrition for Sport Performance
Platteville High School; 10:45–11:20 a.m.
Open to any high school student interested in improving performance by using nutritional best practices.
Department of Health and Human Performance, 608.342.1573

April 8 – Crisis in American Policing: What We Can Do About It?
103 Doudna Hall; 6–7:30 p.m.
David Cooper, retired police chief, pastor, poet, and author, will discuss problems and solutions to urban policing. Cooper served as chief of the Madison Police Department in Madison, Wisconsin, from 1972–93. During that time, he helped transform local policing and develop reforms that spread nationwide.
Social and Environmental Justice, 608.342.6060

April 8 – A Chinese in U.S.A.
141 Doudna Hall; 6–7:30 p.m.
At this cultural forum, a visiting Chinese scholar will discuss culture shock and how values and customs are different in the United States and China.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 11 – Sk Run/Walk
Ralph E. Davis Pioneer Student 9 a.m.
Event is designed to raise awareness about mental health and suicide. For more information and to register for the event, go to: http://uwplattenville4kmrun.weddly.com/.
Department of Health and Human Performance, 608.342.1573

April 11 – National Dinner Night
Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery and Velzy Commons, Ulvick Hall; 4:30–7:30 p.m.
International Programs, 608.342.1726

April 13–May 15 – Art Exhibition
Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery, Ulvick Hall
Opening reception: Nohr Gallery, Tuesday, April 14, 5 p.m.
Gallery exhibition of the finest works senior art students have produced in art class.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143
Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery, 608.342.2787

April 14 – Teaching Activism in the Classroom
103 Doudna Hall; 6:30–8:30 p.m.
Dr. Frank King will discuss the art of activism and encourage students to move beyond the classroom and become fully engaged citizens of the nation and the world.
Ethnic Studies Program, 608.342.6060

April 14 – Second Industrial Revolution
116 Doudna Hall; 6–7:30 p.m.
Dr. David Krugler and Kathy Zhang will discuss the second industrial revolution in the United States and the impact in China from 1870–1914.
Confucius Institute, 608.342.1310

April 15 – Dr. Jacqueline Wilson Bassoon Recital
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 16 – Health and Human Performance Beanbag Tournament
Outdoor track, Williams Fieldhouse; 5:30 p.m.
Open to all beanbag enthusiasts. Register for the event at the health and human performance office in Williams Fieldhouse.
Department of Health and Human Performance, 608.342.1573

April 17–18 – Health and Human Performance Wellness Fair
Valley View Park, Platteville; 4 p.m.
Open to all. Register at the health and human performance office in Williams Fieldhouse or email auto@uwplatt.edu for the registration form.
Department of Health and Human Performance, 608.342.1573

April 18 – Women’s Wellness Conference
Velzy Commons, Ulvick Hall; 8:30 a.m. – 3:20 p.m.
Conference is designed to educate, uplift, empower, and motivate women of all races, sizes, colors, and ethnicities. Sessions will include sexual assault awareness, safe sex, being healthy at any size, LGBTQ health and wellness issues, empowerment, surviving alcohol and other drug abuse, and more.
Pioneer Involvement Center, 608.342.1075

April 18 – Chamber Brass Recital
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 5 p.m.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 21 – Jazz Performance
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 22 – Symphonic Wind Ensemble
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 22 – Shanghai Calling Movie Night
103 Doudna Hall; 6–8 p.m.
Shanghai Calling is a 2012 American romantic-comedy film, is a story about a group of Americans who find themselves immigrants in this Eastern foreign country.
Confucius Institute, 608.342.1310

April 23 – Guest Artist and Faculty Piano Recital
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
Recital will feature Professor Walter Cosand from Arizona State University of Music and Dr. Eugene Alcalay. Repertoire will feature piano concertos Over the Snow Mountain and Moby Dick by Chinese composer Shihuo "Harry" Ma and works by Brahms. Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 27 – Mixed Choir Concert
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
Members of Concert Choir, University Singers, and Chamber Choir will sing at this mixed choir concert.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 27 – Transformations of the Trans-Pacific World after World War II: Cultural, Social, and Economic Exchanges and Changes in the United States and People’s Republic of China
141 Doudna Hall; 6–7:30 p.m.
Dr. Jeong Hee Lee and Jennifer Hao will discuss the post-World War II relationships between the United States and the People’s Republic of China, with an emphasis on the trans-Pacific exchanges of people, goods, and ideas between the two countries.
Confucius Institute, 608.342.1310

April 27 – Clarinet Studio Recital
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 5 p.m.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 28 – Creative Writing Festival
Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery, Ulvick Hall; 4–6:30 p.m.
Festival’s featured reader will be Cuban American Novelist and short story Writer Jennine Capo Crucet. Festival will also feature readings by student winners of the 2015 Thomas Hickey Creative Writing Awards Contest.
Department of Humanities, 608.342.1826

April 29 – Kan Jam Tournament
Miner’s Field, Platteville; 5:30–7:30 p.m.
Kan Jam is a frisbee game that allows people of all ages and skill levels to become more active. Open to all ages.
Department of Health and Human Performance, 608.342.1573

April 29 – Symphony Band Concert
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
Department of Performing and Visual Arts, 608.342.1143

April 30–May 2 – One Act Theatre Festival
Center for the Arts; 7:30 p.m.
University Box Office, 608.342.1298 or tickets.uwplatt.edu