Gossman Ticsay gives to the UW-Platteville Scholarship Program

PLATTEVILLE – The UW-Platteville Scholarship Program gives individuals the opportunity to support graduating high school seniors attending UWP with their gift to this program. By donating to a tri-state area high school of their choice, donors allow the UWP Foundation to grant scholarships to graduating high school seniors that are accepted to UWP from high schools that are participating in this program.

Joy Gossman Ticsay, of Antioch, Ill., is pioneering the path for graduating seniors with her recent gift to the UW-Platteville Scholarship Program for Antioch Community High School. The UWP Foundation will use this gift to provide scholarships to graduates of Antioch Community High School who enroll at UWP.

As a supporter of this program, Gossman Ticsay has chosen to give back to the community where she got her educational start, ensuring that high school graduates of Antioch receive a college education. As to why Gossman Ticsay chose to support the program, she said, “I graduated from Antioch Community High School before attending UWP. I loved UWP and would like to see more people go there.”

Gossman Ticsay graduated from UWP in 1983 with a bachelor of science in criminal justice. She is currently the interim public defender at the Lake County Public Defender’s Office.
