

Ideas for a New Century
LAE Faculty Forum Series – 2005-2006

October 4, 2005 – The CSI Effect: How Journalism is Affecting America's Courtrooms, Education and Criminal Investigation – Aric Dutelle, Respondent: Dr. George Smith

November 3, 2005 – The Global Vision of Working-class Backlash: Race and Fighting on Two Fronts, 1965-1994 – Dr. Joong-Jae Lee, Respondent: Dr. David Krugler

December 1, 2005 – Empowerment in Education: Advocacy, Knowledge, and Rights - Heather Riley, Respondent: Kim Tuescher

February 2, 2006 – Attitudes Toward Abortion: Does Increased Knowledge Lead to Increased Acceptance? -- Elizabeth Gates, Respondent: Jacquelyne Bodden, MSN, RN-C, APNP

March 2, 2006 – Wildness and Control: Risk-taking, Creatureliness, and Courage in the Art of Poetry -- Daniel Dahlquist, Respondent: Tom Nordgren

April 6, 2006 –Why Study World Languages in the Age of English as the World Language? – Patrick Hagen, Respondent: Rosalyn Broussard

All presentations will be in the Nohr Gallery of the Ullsvik Center from 5:00-6:30 p.m.

The public is invited!
Refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Education