

Major in Mathematics - Emphasis in Actuarial Studies
Check Sheet - Effective Fall, 2005

Mathematics majors with an emphasis in actuarial studies must complete all of the following requirements.

- All the requirements for the 36 credit mathematics major, including
 - Math 4040 Probability and Statistics (3)

All of the following:

- Acct 2010 Financial Accounting I (3 credits)
- Acct 2020 Management Accounting II (3)
- BsAd 1200 Introduction to American Business Enterprise (3)
or BsAd 1300 Global Business (3)
- BsAd 3430 Risk Management (3)
- BsAd 3620 Financial Management (3)
- BsAd 3930 Investments (3)
- Econ 2130 Macroeconomics (3)
- Econ 2230 Microeconomics (3)

In addition to these required courses, students majoring in this emphasis should consider the following courses:

- BsAd 4030 Financial Decision Making (3)