Event Descriptions

Asian Fall Night- UWP's Asian Students In Action will be hosting Asian Fall Night on Tuesday, Nov. 3 from 6 to 9:30 p.m. in the Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, located in the Center for the Arts on the UWP campus. The main entertainment will be the Jigu! Thunder Drums of China. The purpose of A.S.I.A. Club is to educate and increase UWP student, faculty, staff and community awareness about the many different Asian ethnic groups along with their cultures and customs. For more information, contact Pusaporn Tabrizi at (608) 342-1506.

'Afghanistan: Past and Prospects'- On Wednesday, Nov. 4, a forum titled "Afghanistan: Past and Prospects" will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Lundeen Lecture Hall (Room 103 of Doudna Hall). The forum will begin with four 15-minute presentations: David Krugler, professor of history, "America and Afghanistan: A Historical Perspective"; David Rowley, associate professor of history, "Lessons from the Soviet Invasion, Occupation and Defeat"; Nancy Turner, professor of history, "Civil War, Taliban, Occupation, What Next?"; and Eli Caywood, UWP student body/ Student Senate president and U.S. Army Ranger Intelligence Analyst, 2002-06 (SPC/E4), "Experiences of U.S. Military Intelligence on the Ground." The presenters will then open the floor to the audience for questions, comments and discussion. There is no cost to attend. For more information, contact Rowley at (608) 342-1788.

Grocery Bingo- On Wednesday, Nov. 4, Campus Programming and Relations will host a Grocery Bingo in the Pioneer Crossing at 7 p.m. There is no cost to attend. Students play bingo and win grocery-themed prizes like laundry supplies, food and seasonal items. For more information, contact CPR at (608) 342-1497.

Rountree Ensemble concert- On Wednesday, Nov. 4, Rountree Ensemble, UWP's chamber music ensemble-in-residence, will be performing a concert in the Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, located in the Center for the Arts on the UWP campus. It will begin at 7:30 p.m. and feature the best of Johannes Brahms. Tickets are available by phone at (608) 342-1298 or at <http://tickets.uwplatt.edu>. Ticket prices are $10 for general admission and $4 for senior citizens and UWP students with a current ID.

Symphony Orchestra- The UWP Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Kevin Price, will be performing at the Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, located in the Center for the Arts on the UWP campus on Thursday, Nov. 5 at 7:30 p.m. There is no cost to attend and everyone is welcome to enjoy this performance. For more information, contact Price at (608) 342-6114.

Stand-up Saturdays- Campus Programming and Relations will host a Stand-up Saturday event on Saturday, Nov. 7 with performers Rob O'Reilly and Eric Blake. It will be a doubleheader event and take place in the Pioneer Student Center Crossing. O'Reilly will perform at 8 p.m. and Blake will perform at 9 p.m. For more information, contact CPR at (608) 342-1497.

AIDS in Africa- The social and environmental justice program at UWP is sponsoring a lecture by Dr. Elwood Carey called "AIDS in Africa: Impact on Children" on Monday, Nov. 9 at 4 p.m. in the Pioneer Student Center Platteville Rooms. This is the inaugural lecture of the social and environmental justice lecture series. For more information, contact Tom Hunt at (608) 342-1898.

Paths to Platteville- UWP will be hosting about 300 selected high school students on Tuesday, Nov. 10 and Thursday, Nov. 12 for the MERC Paths to Platteville program, both beginning at 9 a.m.. The program exposes high school students of color and economically disadvantaged students to a college campus and gives students an idea of the programs and services UWP has to offer. For more information, contact Carlos Wiley at (608) 342-1332.

Stop the Hate- On Tuesday, Nov. 10, a Stop the Hate fundamental program will be conducted in the Pioneer Student Center Wisconsin Room at 6 p.m. The two-hour program discusses an introduction and awareness to the Stop the Hate program. Certificates will be given at the end. For more information, contact Tina Osterholz at (608) 342-1089.

Open Mic- Campus Programming and Relations will host Open Mic night on Nov. 11 at 8 p.m. with sign up at 7:30 p.m. Open Mic takes place in the Pioneer Haus in the Pioneer Student Center. Students are encouraged to perform in a variety of ways: vocals, instrumental, comedy, etc. For more information, contact CPR at (608) 342-1497.

'Runt of the Litter'- The Center for the Arts, on the UWP campus, will host a performance called "Runt of the Litter" on Thursday, Nov. 12 and Friday, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall. The performance is a semiautobiographical account of Bo Eason's life and career as a defensive back for the Houston Oilers in the 1980's, where he played safety. His older brother, Tony Eason, was the quarterback who led the New England Patriots to the Super Bowl in 1986. His performance outlines a family of high achievers in which the younger brother stands in the shadow of his older brother. Tickets are available by phone at (608) 342-1298 or at http:// tickets.uwplatt.edu.

'Dead Man's Cell Phone'- The UWP Department of Visual and Performing Arts will present "Dead Man's Cell Phone" from Thursday, Nov. 12 through Sunday, Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. All performances will begin at 7:30 p.m. but on Nov. 15, the performance will be at 2 p.m. All performances will be held in the Center for the Arts Theatre, located in the CFA on the UWP campus. This 2007 surrealist comedy by Sarah Ruhl explores our need to be connected, how we deal with death and the choices we make that can change our lives. Tickets are available by phone at (608) 342-1298 or at tickets.uwplatt.edu.

Kids Night Out- On Friday, Nov. 13, UWP athletic teams will be providing care and activities for children ages 5 through 12 as part of their annual Kids Night Out events. Participants may drop off their children at Williams Fieldhouse at 6:30 and pick them up at 10:30 p.m. Kids will be entertained throughout the evening with a variety of activities including swimming, movies, arts and crafts, dodgeball, basketball, soccer and hide-n-seek. There is an $8 fee per child. For more information about Kids Night Out, call the Athletic Office at (608) 342-1567.
