

SWAL 2001 Fall Conference

GENERATION "Y"

Who are they?
And what do they want from us?

Southwest Wisconsin Association of Libraries

Thursday, October 11, 2001

8:50 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

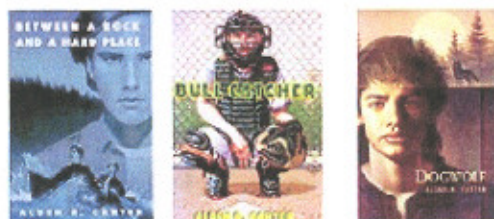

White House Supper Club

Richland Center, WI

SWAL Fall Conference 2001

GENERATION "Y"

Who are they and what do they want from us?

Featured Speaker: Alden Carter

Award-winning author of nine young adult novels, twenty nonfiction books and five picture books. Sheila's Dying, Growing Season, Up Country, Between a Rock and Hard Place, Bull Catcher and Wart, Son of Toad were named American Library Association Best Books for Young Adult

SPECIAL GUEST: Carol S. Carter

Presents "Special Books for Special Kids: Creating Picture Books for and about Challenged Children"

Other Highlights:

- "Kids on the Block Puppet Show" a disabilities sensitivity program presented by CESA #3
- "Strengthening Your Collections for Youth with Special Needs" presented by Sharon Charles, Special Needs Consultant, Southwest Wis. Library System and Nikki Schermacher, Special Education Media Center Coordinator for CESA #3
- Exhibits of puppets, adult & children books, adaptive equipment, software, educational games, toys, and more
- "Teen Read Week" promotional ideas and prizes

October 11, 2001 8:50 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
White House Supper Club, Richland Center, WI

Cost: $17 for SWAL members $22 for non-members
Watch for Conference Registration Flyers after Labor Day