Author of Population 485, Michael Perry was raised on a small dairy farm near New Auburn, WI. He put himself through nursing school working as a cowboy in Wyoming. As of this writing, he is the only member of the New Auburn Area Fire Department to have missed a monthly meeting because of a poetry reading.

The purpose of the Southwest Wisconsin Association of Libraries is the promotion of cooperative efforts to improve total library service in Southwest Wisconsin.

Membership in SWAL is open to all librarians, media specialists, library support staff, library board members, friends of libraries and retirees of any of these groups in Crawford, Grant, Iowa, Lafayette and Richland Counties in Southwest Wisconsin.
