

Dawn Drake Excellence in Distance Education Scholarship

The Dawn Drake Excellence in Distance Education scholarship has been established by Dawn Drake, Executive Director of Alternative Delivery Systems at UW-Platteville. This Scholarship is in recognition of the important role that distance education has played in Dawn's life, both personally and professionally. It is also a recognition of the many sacrifices that distance learners make to successfully juggle education, career, and family.

The following criteria shall be used in the annual selection of the recipient:

- Degree-seeking student enrolled in any UW-Platteville Distance Education program.
- Successfully completed at least one course in a UW-Platteville Distance Education program and be planning to continue with a UW-Platteville Distance Education program.
- Academic achievement will be a consideration. A cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher will be required for selection.
- A one-page essay describing why you believe you are deserving of the scholarship and why you are obtaining your degree at a distance.

Amount: $500

Deadline: February 1, 2019

Application: The Application Form can be filled out online or printed.

Requirements: The completed application, resume, and one-page essay, describing why you believe you are deserving of the scholarship and why you are obtaining your degree at a distance, must be postmarked or emailed no later than February 1 to the following address:
