

INTRODUCING MARCIA J. HARR BAILEY, PH.D.

Assistant Professor, Business & Entrepreneurship;
Coordinator of the Entrepreneurship minor

Please join us in welcoming Dr. Harr Bailey to our campus.

Dr. Harr Bailey earned a BS in Business & Marketing from Upper Iowa University; an MS in Management from Cardinal Stritch; and an MA in Servant Leadership from Viterbo University. She completed her Ph.D. at Fordham University's Graduate School of Education, where her research focused on university service learning as grassroots development in Southeast Asia.

In 2009, she served as a Fulbright grantee to Lao People's Democratic Republic (Laos) where her work continues today. She is the Founder and Executive Director of Poom Loom, a project of the "We Are One Foundation".

Marcia would welcome the opportunity to visit with your students, share her story and offer insights on UW-Platteville's new entrepreneurship minor.
