1. It is understood that some applicants may not be accepted because of musical and instructional balance of organizations, and availability of housing and instructional space. Applications will be accepted until June 28.

2. Campers are expected to attend every scheduled class or activity, including the final camp concert, except for illness or valid circumstance. In the event of early departure, no refund will be made. Cancellations must be received by June 28.

3. Campers may not have any motorized transportation vehicle for operation during camp session. No two-way communication devices are to be used by campers. Campers are responsible for keys and keeping residence hall room doors locked. Parents are responsible for loss, property damage, induced accident or injury, and cost of mischievous use of fire alarms or safety alarms. Smoking by campers is prohibited.

4. The camp reserves the right, upon notification of parents, to dismiss any student during the session for improper dress, conduct, language, or attitude which, in the judgement of the administrative or counseling staff, is deemed detrimental to the other students or normal operation of the camp.

5. The camp reserves the right to audition and place applicants according to their musical ability. If selected, I agree to abide by all rules and regulations of the camp and the stipulations set forth above.

The UW-Platteville Pioneer Summer Band Camp has a long tradition of excellence in music instruction. The camp offers exceptional opportunities to learn more about music. Students will participate in one of three concert bands, master classes, sectionals, and a basic theory class. Students will also have the opportunity to choose other class options (conducting, world percussion, instrument care and repair, jazz techniques, vocal techniques, advanced theory, and music composition). In addition to performance, the camp offers recreational activities and optional private lessons.

Ensembles (seating based on audition)

- Three Concert Bands—for all woodwind, brass, and percussion students
- Jazz Ensemble—optional, based on audition
- Jazz Ensemble Rhythm Section—members selected from camp participants (piano, guitar, bass, drums)
- Student Recital—selected by camp staff

Daily classes include conducting, world percussion, instrument care and repair, jazz techniques, vocal techniques, advanced theory, and music composition.

PIONEER SUMMER BAND CAMP

PRIVATE LESSONS
Optional 30-minute lessons with camp faculty are available for $20 per half hour, paid to teacher at registration.

STAFF
The instrumental staff is comprised of UW-Platteville faculty and experienced teachers who are chosen for their expertise in their field. Students will gain knowledge to improve their tone, technique, and musicianship.

HOUSING
Resident campers will be housed on campus in the residence halls throughout the week. Students may request a roommate on the application form. If no request is made, students will be assigned a roommate of the same grade level. Hall assignments are made with grade level consideration. Rooms are furnished with a small refrigerator. Bed linens and towels are not furnished.

A staff/counselor will reside in each hall. They will supervise the students while they are on campus.

MEALS
All resident campers will be provided a full meal plan of three meals a day starting with dinner on Sunday and ending with lunch on Saturday. Commuters with no meals. The camp fee includes a commuter meal plan.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE
If you are entering grades seven through 12, or will be a graduating senior this fall, you may apply. You must have signatures from a band teacher and parent/guardian to be considered. You may also register online at www.uwplatt.edu/music/band.

Print and complete the health and consent form found online and return with registration form to Continuing Education at the address listed on the registration form.

REGISTRATION PLACEMENT AUDITIONS/THEORY TEST
Registration is Sunday, July 10, in Doudna Hall from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Your chair placement and theory placement test will also take place during this time. Residents will receive residence hall assignments beginning at noon.

The closing concert will be on Saturday, July 16 at 1:30 p.m. in the Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall, Center for the Arts.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR ALL-STATE PARTICIPANTS
Students earning placement in this year’s All-State Honor’s Band are eligible for a $100 tuition reduction. To apply, forward proof of participation (program) with your name highlighted. Reduction is subject to approval.

FEES AND DEADLINES
Applications will be accepted through June 2. The cost of the camp is $495 for residents, $320 for commuters with lunch Monday through Friday, and $280 for commuters with no meals. The camp fee includes a short sleeve polo shirt that will be worn for the concert. Checks should be made payable to the University of Wisconsin-Platteville. For cancellations through June 28, there will be an administrative fee of $15 deducted from your refund. After June 28, no refunds will be given.
