Pioneer Players present Agnes of God
Center for the Arts Theatre
Feb. 18 at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.
Feb. 19–21 at 7:30 p.m.
Feb. 22 at 2 p.m.
Dr. Martha Livingstone, a court-appointed psychiatrist, is called to a convent and charged with assessing the sanity of a young novitiate accused of murdering her newborn child. New York critics called Agnes of God a “powerful, electrifying drama that deals intelligently with questions of religion and psychology ... blindingly theatrical.”

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers
Richard and Helen Brodbeck Concert Hall
Center for the Arts
7 p.m.
Set in Oregon in 1850, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers tells the story of Millie, a young bride living in the 1850s Oregon wilderness. Her plan to civilize and marry off her six rowdy brothers-in-law to ensure the success of her own marriage backfires when the brothers, in their enthusiasm, kidnap six women from a neighboring town to be their brides. Seven Brides for Seven Brothers is all boisterous fun and romance.
