MY OPPORTUNITY TO SUCCEED

The University of Wisconsin-Platteville Richland is a regional leader here to help you start your academic journey. Maybe your passion lies within the evolving agriculture industry or you are interested in engineering and infrastructure solutions. Maybe you haven't discovered it yet. Whatever the case, our dedicated faculty and engaged community are here to help you along the way.

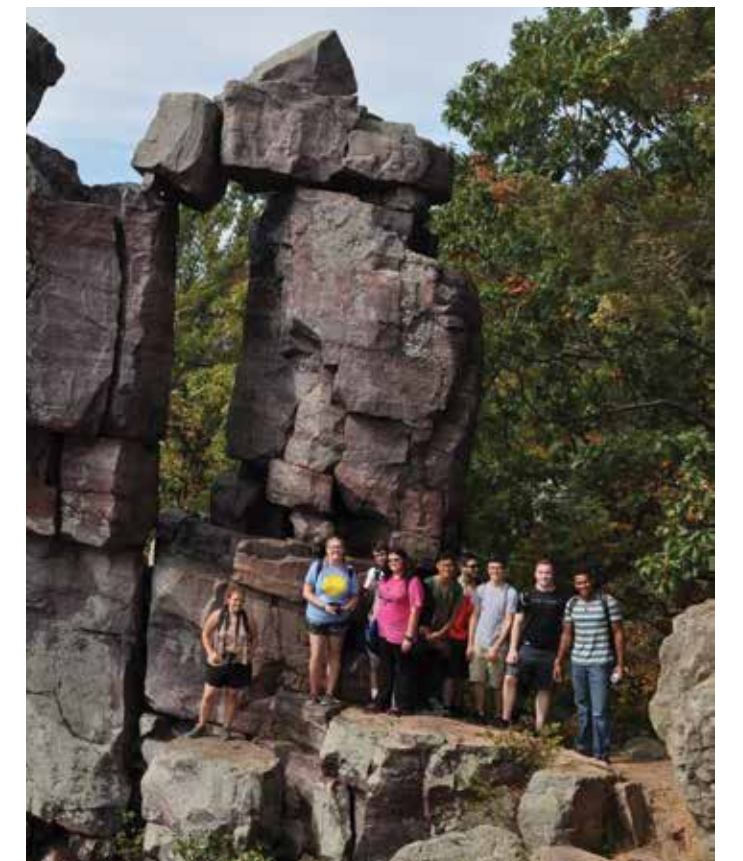

As a part of UW-Platteville, students at the Richland campus will have access to the benefits of a state university with the comfort and support of a small campus. This prepares you for success whether your next step leads to the workforce, continuing your degree at UW-Platteville, or transferring elsewhere.

MARCUS HOLLOWAY

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

"I chose to start at UW-Platteville Richland because it is affordable and close to home. I decided to continue at UW-Platteville because it's a simple process and I know all of my credits will count."

A PERSONAL APPROACH TO EDUCATION

Combining outstanding academics with our vibrant campus and friendly community, UW-Platteville Richland creates an environment where you can succeed. This all starts in the classroom, where our small class sizes mean you can get to know your classmates, providing opportunities to learn together and form life-long friendships. All of our courses are taught by our esteemed faculty members, who guide your understanding of complex issues through projects, research, and partnerships with regional and national organizations. Plus, each instructor offers regular weekly office hours, meaning you have access to one-on-one support and guidance when you need it.

TAYASHALYNN LUTZ

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

"I chose UW-Platteville Richland because of the affordability, but also the small class sizes. Campus is easy to navigate, and you really get to know your professors, who truly care about their students and help them achieve their goals."

INNOVATIVE, HANDS-ON LEARNING

At UW-Platteville Richland, classroom knowledge is enhanced with hands-on projects, service learning, research, and much more. Our labs ensure you get the immersive training experience that employers are looking for and will help you succeed should you continue your education.

Your experience isn't just limited to our campus, either. You'll have chances to work with community and business partners, so your work has impact throughout the region.

AMBER RYNES

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

"I chose UW-Platteville Richland because I knew I could get an affordable education while making lasting connections with my peers, my professors, and the community."

WHAT WE CONSIDER

At UW-Platteville Richland, we're looking for determined individuals who want to achieve excellence, create opportunities, and empower themselves, their communities, and the world. While academic potential is a part of what makes a great student, we also consider the personal factors reflected in your essay. The following are some of the items we take into account while reviewing your application:

- GPA and class rank
 - New freshmen are likely to be admitted to UW-Platteville Richland if they rank in the top 75% of their class and successfully complete the minimum college preparatory units.
- Academic courses from ninth through 12th grades. Minimum college preparatory credits required include:
 - English: 4 units
 - Mathematics: 3 units
 - One unit of algebra
 - One unit of geometry
 - Natural science: 3 units
 - Social science: 3 units
 - Electives: 4 units
 - Additional courses from the above areas, foreign language, fine arts, computer science, or other academic areas
- Course rigor
- ACT or SAT scores (not required)

Each applicant receives a comprehensive and individualized review.

AFFORDABLE, ACCESSIBLE EDUCATION

Second only to our reputation for high quality programs, affordability is what made UW-Platteville Richland stand out to newly admitted students¹. We've received national recognition for the value of our degrees, and we have many options, like our textbook rental system, to make your education even more affordable.

FINANCIAL AID

Federal, state, and institutional aid are available to assist students in paying for college. To apply for most financial aid—including grants, loans, and federal work-study—you must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. File online at fafsa.ed.gov as early as Oct. 1, using the UW-Platteville school code 003921.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship opportunities of varying amounts are offered for new and continuing students.

The deadline to apply for a New Student Scholarship is April 1. Visit uwplatt.edu/richland/richland-paying-college for details and to access the scholarship application.

RICHLAND PROMISE

Through the Richland Promise, newly admitted freshmen for the 2021–22 school year that submit a completed scholarship application will receive a minimum of $500 to support their studies.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Student employment opportunities are available to UW-Platteville Richland students regardless of financial aid status.
